To proclaim truth, & justice and righteousness, In this ya land That's my calling and mandate from the higha one So mi sit down to write this ya likle song
Not to bash you but youth listen, undastand
We serve a holy God, we serve a holy king
So get you life outa the mess and lawless living now
We serve a holy God, we serve a holy king
Repent, repent for God's kingdom is coming eh
How long will we talk bout Christ, yet we still fornicate
How long will we lie & steal and think everything straight
On God's word, my friend you betta meditate Jumping jacks my King him no tolerate You Betta get your life straight I say, on judgment day it's gonna be too late

On that day, many men will stand and will say, did not we heal the sick, cast out demons when we pray. On that day, many men will stand and smile, but that smile, will sadly face away. Me you coulda fool but you can't fool God; He knows everything you do inna the dark. Whisper inna ears, every man gonna still hear. Only God you shoulda fear (Repeat)
